

JCTS
JOINT COLLEGES TRAINING SERVICES

JCTS.ORG.AU

Podcasts

"Always Was, Always Will be Our Stories" - Marlee Silva

Find it on Spotify

"Always Was, Always Will Be Our Stories" is the deadly podcast started in 2020 by Marlee Silva, who previously ran Tiddas 4 Tiddas. This podcast is about inspiring conversations with Indigenous role models and trailblazers.

Always Was, Always Will Be Our Stories is written, hosted, produced and edited by Marlee Silva, on the unceded lands of the Dharawal people. It features interviews by Marlee Silva with some inspirational Indigenous Australians.

Some notable episodes in the podcast:

- Episode 8 - Clothing to Start a Conversation (Clothing the Gap)

An interview with the creators of Clothing the Gap.

- Episode 6 - Defying the Enemy Within

An interview with famous athlete Joe Williams about his journey as an athlete, but also a frank conversation about his mental health issues.

Warning: Some of the content in this episode can be a bit confronting.

For more information about this podcast visit: Victorian Aboriginal Child and Community Agency \(VACCA\)

"Big Sky Country" - Bush Heritage Australia

Find it on Spotify

Big Sky Country takes you deep into the bush to hear the sounds of hope. Join conservation organisation Bush Heritage Australia to travel this vast country: from the eucalypt woodlands of Dja Dja Wurrung country in central Victoria, to the grassy plains and rock country of central Arnhem Land.

Meet the people on ground who are experts in ecology, culture, conservation and country. Learn about seasons and ceremony, teeny tiny fish and phascogale sex, and the sounds a tree makes when it dies.

Hear the untold wonders of this precious and sometimes precarious land. And take the time to listen to the people who are protecting it against a barrage of ever-growing threats.

